

MALTA

Consumer Claims Tribunal

CCT 197/15/MS

Deborah Lauria

vs

Sharon Attard Speranza - Financial Training Institute of Malta

30th May 2016

The Tribunal

Having seen the application filed by claimant on 12th October 2015 whereby she requested a refund of €400.00 as compensation for cancelled modules in her book-keeping course with FTIOM Institute which course commenced on the 9th September 2014.

Having seen the reply of defendant company of 1st April 2016 filed by Michele Yianni as Director of said company.

Having seen that in spite of the fact that claimant Deborah Lauria was notified with the notice of hearing on both the 14th October 2015 and the 27th January 2016, claimant failed to appear in court on the day of said hearing and did not present any evidence to support her claim.

Having heard the evidence tendered by Michele Yanni on behalf of defendant company.

Having seen all the documentary evidence submitted.

In view of the fact that the claimant did not present any evidence, this Tribunal is not in a position to consider her claim, which is hereby being dismissed with costs.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Michela Spiteri'.

Michela Spiteri LLD
Arbiter